Hundred year's traditions of highly artistic porcelain

Rudolf Kämpf factory was founded at the turn of the 20 century with the support of the Habsburg royal dynasty and King Franz Joseph I. The factory was designed as an elite supplier of highly artistic tableware, figurines and other precious decorations of interior design as well as chinaware for the royal court and the households of European aristocracy.

Supreme craftsmanship, refined shapes and decorations, European traditions and unique handicraft are the main features, that always differ Rudolf Kämpf manufactory from other producers.

Rudolf Kämpf retains its highest standards of handiwork providing premium quality of its production, creating exclusive limited series rejoicing the hearts of connoisseurs and collectors.

Rudolf Kämpf located in the centre of the "porcelain" Europe. It has access to the sources of the world's best raw materials and can afford to produce limited series of highest-quality hard porcelain.

The main advantage of Rudolf Kämpf is the expert staff of the company with their supreme skills. The total duration of the education and training program the workers of the factory receive is several years. Only after a very thorough performance appraisal will a staff member be admitted to regular work.

Rudolf Kämpf factory cooperates with the most respected specialists in the sphere of design, such as famous sculptors Alesh Verner, Daniel Pirsch, designer Vaclav Eibl and from now on Guido Savio of Savio Firmino.

Rudolf Kämpf porcelain is represented by small collections. The manufacturer usually produces unique articles or short series. Such an approach provides an additional value of the company's production from the collectors' viewpoint. It is not without reason that the target customers of Rudolf Kämpf's production over a hundred years have been famous and influential people all over the world.

Rudolf Kämpf porcelain pieces are held in many museums and private collections. Among them - Paris Museum of Army, private collections of Prince of Saudi Arabia, the 42th President of the USA Bill Clinton, King Harald V of Norway, Pope John Paul II, designer Pierre Cardin, The President of Iraq Kurdistan Massoud Barzani.

Rudolf Kämpf production is original and varied. The factory is by no means a "blind slave of fashion". Professing the original philosophy of its own the company is making its progress through Romanesque style and art deco to the futuristic objects drawing inspiration in the creative work of the master-minds all over the world.

Finest Design for the finest homes

Since 1941 SAVIO FIRMINO produces an elegant collection of stylish furniture according to the secular tradition of the Florentine craftsmen.

Beds, Mirrors, Tables, Bathroom and Children furniture: all original models created by our staff of artists are designed for the most prestigious home decoration, with prestigious clients worldwide.

SAVIO FIRMINO has operated for over thirty years in the Santo Spirito district of Florence, which has been home to the best art master, such as Michelangelo, Leonardo and Brunelleschi.

To better satisfy increasing demands, SAVIO FIRMINO has moved near Florence, taking up residence in a new area where are operating the most qualified companies of the high end Fashion Industry.

SAVIO FIRMINO is a company that can design easily different objects, giving them a classical and innovative effect at the same time. This can be reviewed in the Porcelain Collection created and designed for Rudolf Kämpf.

Filled with different types of creations, the collection has a common signature: "Roses and Ribbon" motive, the distinctive, worldwide known, SAVIO FIRMINO classical pattern.

Designer in Chief Guido Savio used the renewed pattern that characterized the most precious furniture realized by the Florentine Company to enrich these fine handmade pieces and create - together with furniture - an enchanting set.

A unique Decorum and the preciousness of the manual workmanship used by Rudolf Kämpf Craftmen to realize this collection it makes every object a small masterpiece. Colors select for the Decorum - the 24 Karat Gold and the Platinum - enriches the neutral porcelain base.
